

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I, Karen Grelish, hereby certify that, on July 27, 2023, a true and correct copy of the attached Letter to Vice Chancellor was filed and served electronically via File and ServeXpress on the following counsel of record's designated email addresses:

Gregory V. Varallo, Esquire; Daniel E. Meyer, Esquire; Michael J. Barry, Esquire; Kelly L. Tucker, Esquire; Jason M. Avellino, Esquire; Thomas Curry, Esquire; Corrine Elise Amato, Esquire; John A. Neuwirth; Joshua S. Amsel; Raymond J. DiCamilo; Kevin M. Gallagher; Matthew W. Murphy

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Karen Grelish", is positioned above a horizontal line.

Vice Chancellor, Morgan T. Zurn
Court of Chancery New Castle County
Leonard L. Williams Justice Center
500 North King Street
Wilmington, DE 19801

I have read your opinion of July 21, 2023 and discovered that my name, Grelish, was mentioned on Page 65. You have written that you conclude that my objection is neither compliant nor an Objection because it lacks proof of ownership and does not object to the settlement, but rather informs Plaintiffs that Grelish had not received a post card.

Please see the attached email from Sara.Swartzwelder@blbglaw.com on June 14, 2023 confirming that my redacted Objection would be filed publicly on the docket of this case as instructed.

I have also included a response email from Mr. Jason Avellino (JAvellino@gelaw.com), attached, regarding the Special Master's Report and confirming my name appears on Exhibit B (objection with proof of ownership, no opt out explicitly requested – consistent with your initial timely (on or before May 31) submission(s); AND Exhibit G - opt out requests received after May 31, 2023 and prior to June 16, 2023 (when Exhibit G was filed).). The subject line from Mr. Avellino's email reads "Re: Unsealing of Objection 2023-0215-MTZ [IWOV-LEGAL.FID339283]."

I am uncertain about the specific issue that arose during the objection transfers between the Plaintiff's lawyers and the Special Master. Nevertheless, it seems that there was an oversight between the two parties. Under Exhibits K – L to the Transmittal Affidavit of Daniel E. Meyer, my Objection was formally submitted on the court docket on June 22, 2023. It is specifically listed under Exhibit "K."

As seen within the email attachment, I did inform Mr. Avellino that my name was incorrectly missing on Appendix A submitted to the court by the Special Master. I did also email the Special Master.

I have also submitted an Objection to the Special Master's Report, and it is on the court docket under Karen Nancy Grelish, June 29, 2023.

I have a court docket account and have previously viewed my Objection under Exhibit K; Karen Grelish.

I urgently request your thorough review of the provided information, emphasizing the importance of recognizing my unsealed Objection as a timely submission with irrefutable proof of ownership, as previously verified.

I invested a substantial amount of time and effort into crafting my Objection, ensuring strict adherence to the court's instructions throughout the submission process. However, despite my diligent efforts, it seems that my Objection did not reach the Special Master through no fault of my own.

Considering the gravity of the matter at hand and the validity of my submission, I implore you to give utmost weight to this request and take the necessary actions to address the oversight.

Sincerely,

Good morning, Ms. Grelish,

Your redacted objection has been received, and will be filed publicly on the docket of this case as instructed. We are also working to move your name to the appropriate list.

Thank you,

Sara D. Swartzwelder

Good Morning,

Please refer to the attached documents comprising my redacted objection, which I am requesting to be unsealed.

In addition, I would like my name to be added to the list of persons not having received a post card as of June 14, 2023.

Please change my name to the Opt-Out list of objections. My control number is: OWPNOO00686.

Thanking you in advance.

Karen Grelish

Karen,

Plaintiffs' counsel did not prepare the Appendixes to the SM Report so I cannot speak as to how they were prepared. That said, I can confirm that your name appears on the proper Exhibits prepared and filed by Plaintiffs' counsel as follows:

- Exhibit B (objection with proof of ownership, no opt out explicitly requested) – consistent with your initial timely (on or before May 31) submission(s); AND
- Exhibit G – opt out requests received after May 31, 2023 and prior to June 16, 2023 (when Exhibit G was filed)

Both exhibits are attached for your review (as well as screenshots showing your name therein below).
